NEWS FROM

Costa Rica

My prayer is that the Lord continues to bless you every day both physically and spiritually, together with all the entire church family at Southside.

May these Christmas holidays have been full of joy and family togetherness.

Thanks to the Lord we are well, rejoicing with the brothers here in the Church at Liberia, this Sunday, December 29th, we had a church brunch to say goodbye to the year 2024.

Thank you so much for the Christmas gift, Marietta and I are very grateful for your love towards us, may God continue to bless you.

I'm happy to inform you that Marietta has been invited to a Women's Retreat in Daytona, Florida this coming February 2025. I have decided to accompany her to Florida. We will also spend a few days with my sister-in-law who lives there along with her husband.

We are always praying for you and asking the Lord to give us an opportunity to visit you.

I wish that this new year 2025 will be greatly blessed as this year that is soon ending has been. With the love of always, Your brother in Christ, Ricardo Alvarado

Susan Ann Shoemaker Edwards passed away peacefully December 23rd, 2024, one day after celebrating her 90th birthday.

Susan was born December 22, 1934 and was preceded in death by her parents, Elliot A. and Lucy Payne Shoemaker, and her husband, Walter Beecher Edwards.

Walter and Susan had been married for 64 years before his passing in 2018. They had met the first days at David Lipscomb University and devoted their lives to each other, their church and their family.

Susan took pride in developing a children's church curriculum and many years spent at Western Kentucky Youth Camp. Their church ministries took them from Arkansas, to Benton, Kentucky, Hopkinsville, Kentucky, Cookeville, Tennessee, Statesville, North Carolina, and back to their beloved Hopkinsville. Susan had a love of growing flowers and watching UK basketball and tennis...especially when Walter played or her grandchildren, and she made the best "no bake chocolate oatmeal cookies" that all the kids loved.

Survivors include their daughter, LaWanna Edwards, Nashville, Tennessee, their son, Byron K. (Ellen) Edwards, Brentwood, Tennessee, grandson, Adam K. (Kacey) Edwards, and granddaughter, Ashley Ann (Devon) Edwards-Cannon.

Susan also had two brothers, Aaron and Lawrence Shoemaker, and two sisters, Martha Jane Rogers and Hazel K. Smith.

Susan had requested not to have a service but any expressions of sympathy may be made to Southside Church of Christ in Hopkinsville, Kentucky or Western Kentucky Youth Camp in care of Southside Church of
