Welcome!

If you are visiting with us today please feel free to participate. We will sing and pray to the Lord and express our adoration and thanksgiving for all the blessings He freely gives. We will have an offering this morning and we do not want our visitors to feel obligated in any way. There is a nursery located through the double doors located to the left of the pulpit. A children's worship is provided for children ages 2 through Kindergarten on the second floor which will be announced during our service. Please turn your cell phone ringers off during our service.

SOUTHSIDE

CHURCH of CHRIST

As the back-to-school season begins it brings new routines, fresh opportunities and sometimes a mix of excitement mingled with nervousness. I heard this from some of the moms and dads among our church family, in fact several of our students will be beginning at a new school this year with new people and new teachers, others will be starting school for the very first time. For these kids, as well as for parents and teachers alike, this is a reminder to remember that God goes before us in every new chapter. Proverbs 3:5-6 instructs us to “trust in the Lord with all our hearts and lean not on our own understanding.” Whether facing an unfamiliar classroom, a challenging subject, or simply the busyness of the school year, we can rest in the assurance that God is guiding our steps and providing strength for each day.

I'd like to encourage you to let this season be more than just a return to bell schedules and school supplies—let it be a time to grow in faith and purpose. Equip your children to approach each day with prayer and a heart open to God's presence. Jesus spoke directly to students and many of His teachings offer powerful guidance that applies to anyone learning or growing, including our own kindergarten kids and college bound freshmen. Jesus was often addressed as Teacher (“Rabbi”), and His disciples were essentially students (Mark 10:51, John 3:2). While His advice was primarily for His followers, these are universal principles which come directly from the heart of God:

Be Humble and Teachable: Jesus praised childlike humility and a willingness to learn: “Whoever humbles himself like this child is the greatest in the kingdom of heaven” (Matthew 18:4).

Love Others: School isn't just about books—it's about relationships too. It's a call to kindness, respect, and compassion in every classroom or campus. Jesus said, “Love your neighbor as yourself” (Matthew 22:39).

Don't Worry: This is especially comforting for students facing exams, deadlines, or new experiences: “Do not be anxious about tomorrow...” (Matthew 6:34).

Jesus invited people to learn from Him and emphasized the importance of being open-hearted, humble seekers (Matthew 11:29). May this school year be filled with wisdom, peace and a renewed desire to walk closely with Christ in every classroom, hallway and conversation we encounter (Matthew 7:24). May God bless our local schools, teachers and administrators, parents and students, and all the behind-the-scenes servants who assist them.

Memorial Scholarship Fund

The David Lee King Memorial Scholarship Fund was established in 1992 as a permanent fund to provide higher education grants for students who have been accepted at a Church of Christ college. Gifts of any amount are encouraged. Your gift will be added to this permanent scholarship fund, where the principal is perpetually invested and the income is used for educational grants. David Lee King served as an elder at Southside and loved the children of this congregation. He knew that the future of the Church depends on their leadership and it is our responsibility to see that they are prepared to live good, Christian lives, molded in an environment that puts Christ first. No other memorial to Brother King could be more fitting. All checks should be made payable to Southside Church of Christ and marked for the David Lee King Memorial Scholarship Fund. Please do not put these checks in the regular contribution but give them to an Elder or one of the office staff.
