SOUTHSIDE

CHURCH of CHRIST

Committed to Christ

If you are visiting with us here at Southside this morning, we hope to convey the truth that spiritual commitment to God is not merely about religious observance, but about forgiveness of sin and an immersion into a real relationship, a daily walk with the living Savior who offers grace, mercy, and transformation. Resolving to be committed to Jesus Christ holds immeasurable value—both in this life and for eternity—and in a world filled with distractions, temptations and uncertainty...loyal allegiance to Jesus provides a firm foundation of purpose, identity, and hope!

First and foremost, being devoted to Jesus gives us spiritual direction. He declared, “I am the way, the truth, and the life...” (John 14:6), meaning that through Him we discover and acknowledge God’s presence and His plan for our lives. When we walk with Jesus, we align ourselves with Truth that doesn’t shift according to cultural trends or personal feelings - this brings clarity and peace, even when the world around us is in chaos. Second, commitment to Jesus brings inner transformation. As we follow Him, the Holy Spirit works within us to produce the fruit of the Spirit—love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, and more (Galatians 5:22–23). These are not just moral improvements, but evidence of a deeply changed heart. Staying close to Jesus empowers us to overcome sin, forgive others, and live with compassion as He reshapes our character in ways we could never achieve on our own. Moreover, Jesus offers each of us an unshakable hope. Life inevitably brings suffering, disappointment, and loss, but those who are committed to Christ are never without hope. Jesus promises, “In this world you will have trouble. But take heart! I have overcome the world” (John 16:33). His resurrection is the guarantee that pain and death do not have the final word. Through Him, we have the assurance of eternal life as well as the strength to persevere (Romans 8:35-39, 1 John 5:4-5).

Finally, being faithfully committed to Jesus causes us to live with purpose. We are called not only to know Him but to make Him known. Through our words, actions, and choices, we reflect His love to a broken world, and this mission gives profound meaning to our lives, no matter our circumstances or status. It is not always easy, but it is always worth it. Remember that Jesus is faithful, and those who stay committed to Him will never walk alone.

PARTNERS 4 AFRICA

To our dear brothers and sisters, Paul said it best in Phil 1: 3-6 "You have been our partners in the gospel from the first day until now." I asked Dorian recently when we were going to retire and he said, "Retire? No, we are going to sprint through the finish line!" And he did. I picked him up from Africa at the airport on Saturday and Sunday morning he went home to his Lord.

We cherish our partnership with you and ask for your continued support and prayers. We are grieving right now but are also determined to carry on this wonderful work that you have help make possible. Our son, Lee, will continue full-time with us as well as Hailey and Noma in Zimbabwe. Together our team will push forward as we have done in the past.

In the upcoming days and weeks we will be making contact with you to setup dates for reporting about the work. May God bless you. Cheri and Lee Flynn
