A Thanksgiving Hymn That Sees God's Hand Everywhere

For a hymn that captures the beauty and gratitude of Thanksgiving, All Things "Bright and Beautiful" is a perfect choice. Its lyrics paint vivid pictures — flowers opening in the morning sun, birds singing, golden sunsets, purple-topped mountains and rivers rushing by. It all leads to this joyful reminder: "He gave us eyes to see them, and lips that we might tell: How great is God Almighty, who has made all things well."

The hymn was written by Cecil Frances Alexander (1818–1895), an Irishwoman with a passion for teaching children about God. She wrote many hymns for her Sunday school class, later collected in Verses for Holy Seasons.

But her ministry went beyond music — she spent her life serving the poor, comforting the sick, and caring for the grieving. When she passed away, "a great throng" gathered to remember her, honoring both her faith and the beauty she shared with the world.

If you haven't paid for Celebration the cost is $90 per youth and can be given to Teresa or one of the Elders.

Congratulations to Emily Vierra on receiving her Ed.D (Doctorate of Education)!

Keep Jean Williams and Charity Miller in your thoughts and prayers in the loss of Jean's son, Jay, last weekend. And remember Sue Maxwell and her family in the loss of her mother, Mary Harper.
