Was Judas There?

Recently, I read the book 12 Ordinary Men to get a better understanding of the apostles' lives and how they were chosen. The chapter dedicated to Judas raised a question that I had not really thought about but has been debated by Bible scholars for a long time. It is also a reminder of how you come across new insights on the Bible each time you study it.

The account of the Passover meal and the last supper are given in each of the gospels and 1 Corinthians. Although the synoptic Gospels of Matthew, Mark and Luke are all similiar, the Gospel of John is different. Roy Staley's class on the Book of John recently touched on this, as well as many other details found in the book. It is in this account that John states that after Peter has asked John to ask Jesus who among them would be the betrayer and John states that after Jesus had given Judas the sop of bread from the meal he immediatley left and went out into the night. The other accounts of this meal mention that Judas was there but not mentioned specifially as being at the last supper. John's account seems to be more personal and in depth. John states that Jesus was troubled in spirit throughout this entire episode. It shows that Jesus is pure, sinless and Holy and while Judas was there, evil and sin were present.

I believe this applies to us today. In 1 Corinthianswe are told to examine ourselves before we come to the Lord's table. Chapter 11 tells us that anyone who eats this bread and drinks this cup unworthily is guilty of sinning against the body and blood of Christ. In John's account, it seems that Jesus removed the evil before they partook of the last supper.

I feel as Christians who take this meal each first day of the week we need to realize the importance of recognizing and asking forgivenss for our sins and not to continue in that sin. Each of us need to examine our hearts and realize the sacrifice made on our behalf and partake of this meal in a respectful manner. I encourage each of us to read all these accounts of the Last Supper so we will have a better understanding of this memorial to Christ's death. Freddy
