Allan Lopez Report from PANAMÁ

Beloved brothers in Christ, receive warm greetings in the name of our Savior, Christ Jesus. Beloved, we have finished constructing the church building in Wala; we also built an apartment for the preacher so he can live comfortably. That congregation meets every day of the week. We also renovated an old building in Ipeti—another congregation. We painted it, repaired the roof (which had leaks), installed a new door, and put up a banner announcing the church. All the congregations remain highly motivated despite the bad weather; the El Niño phenomenon is severely affecting us. Evangelism continues; we have not stopped preaching the Gospel. The other three congregations are also striving to grow and develop further each day. I am in need of Kuna preachers as well as financial assistance. My wife's mental health is deteriorating day by day. For my part, I feel very exhausted and suffer from pain in my feet and back; diabetes is trying to destroy me. Brothers, I need your prayers now more than ever.

We will be adding and replacing bricks in our Veterans Memorial Garden in front of the church building. Forms are available for new bricks in the Welcome Center and foyer. Please fill out the information and return to the office staff by November 29th. We will be replacing the bricks of those we have lost since our last brick order.

Susan Rochelle is moving to Nashville this week. Susan and her husband Mike, who served as a deacon and Elder for many years at Southside before his death, have been long time members. Her new address is Cloverland Park Senior Living
6030 Cloverland Drive, Apt. 202

Southside's volleyball team will play Living Hope Baptist at 8:00 PM on Tuesday, Nov. 3rd, at the Recreation Center.

The Daniel Family

Thank you, Southside family, for all your expressions of love and encouragement for my recent surgery and recovery. All were greatly appreciated. Love to all and God bless you. Danny Marcum
